

Council for Social Development, Hyderabad Internship Programme - 2021

About CSD

CSD is an autonomous research institution supported by the Indian Council of Social Science Research, New Delhi, the Government of Telangana and Reserve Bank of India. CSD was founded by Dr. Durgabai Deshmukh in Delhi in 1962. The Southern Regional Centre, CSD, Hyderabad, was established in Hyderabad in 1967. CSD was set up as a think tank to keep a focus on the social aspects of development planning and to initiate policy oriented research on the social determinants of development – vital concerns in the early plan periods. Dr. Durgabai Deshmukh, legendary social worker and indefatigable institution builder, gathered around her the best minds to think through human social needs during the frenzied years of nation building. CSD is housed in its own 1.25-acre campus in the institutional area in Rajendranagar, Hyderabad. A spacious and well planned building with well maintained, sustainable green environs; internet access and connectivity; lecture halls and auditorium; and a modest library.

CSD's Areas of Specialisation
